

cyclic monophosphate, in which x and y are reacted to form a cyclic moiety, is well known to one skilled in the art and further disclosure is not necessary to enable this aspect of the claimed invention.

It is therefore respectfully requested that the rejection be withdrawn.

Respectfully submitted,

MORGAN & FINNEGAN

Dated: Aug. 27, 1991

By: Donna R. Fugit

Donna R. Fugit, Ph.D.
Registration No. 32,135

Mailing Address:
MORGAN & FINNEGAN
345 Park Ave.
New York, N.Y. 10154
(212) 758-4800